

A condition in which the availability of each alternative and its potential pay off and costs are all associated with probability estimates is?

A condition in which the availability of each alternative and its potential pay off and costs are all associated with probability estimates is?

- A. State of risk
- B. State of certainty
- C. State of mild certainty
- D. State of high certainty