

According to the three-box/information-processing model, stimuli from our outside environment is first stored in

According to the three-box/information-processing model, stimuli from our outside environment is first stored in

- A. working memory.
- B. the hippocampus.
- C. the thalamus.
- D. sensory memory