
Airport Security Force ASF Act 1975 MCQs Quiz | PDF Download

The Airport Security Force \(ASF\) Act of 1975 is a law that explains how the Airport Security Force ASF in Pakistan should work to keep airports safe. This law is very important because it helps protect everyone at the airports, including passengers and workers. If you are studying for the FPSC Test and exams or want to learn more about this important law, the Airport Security Force ASF Act, 1975 MCQs Quiz is very important in this regard. This quiz has 50 multiple-choice questions; you can see the answers after clicking the options. The Airport Security Force ASF Act 1975 Download button is at the page's end.

Airport Security Force ASF Act, 1975 MCQs PDF for Preparation

According to the ASF Act, what is excluded from the definition of “aerodrome”?

Civil aviation stations

Airports used exclusively by the Pakistan Air Force

Airports with insufficient facilities

Private aircraft hangars

Who is designated as the head of the Airports Security Force?

Force Commander

Director General

Airport Manager

Civil Aviation Director

What is the responsibility of the Airports Security Force under the ASF Act?

Ensuring security only for international flights

Preventing unauthorized access to air-side areas and ensuring the safety of aircraft and passengers

Overseeing air traffic control operations

Managing airport financial operations

What does the term “aerodrome” include according to the ASF Act?

Only the runway

Runway and control tower

All buildings, sheds, vessels, piers, installations, and equipment on the land or water set for aircraft movement

Only areas used by the Pakistan Air Force

What action can an officer or member of the ASF take if they suspect someone of endangering the safety of an aerodrome or airport?

Request assistance from local police

Detain the person only with a warrant

Search and arrest the person without a warrant

Report the incident to higher authorities

Under what condition can the Director General of ASF call for military assistance?

During routine security checks

In connection with post-landing and anti-hijacking operations with prior Federal Government approval

When a security guard is absent

For administrative purposes

What are the powers of an officer under the ASF Act?

Similar to those of a private security guard

Equivalent to an officer in charge of a police station under the Police Order, 2002

Limited to issuing tickets for minor offenses

Restricted to internal airport security only

Who is responsible for issuing orders and instructions to ASF officers and members?

Airport Manager

Federal Government

Local Police Chief

Airline Companies

What must every ASF officer and member promptly obey and execute?

All orders and instructions from any competent authority

Only written instructions

Verbal commands from passengers

Instructions from airline staff

To what are ASF officers and members subject under the ASF Act?

Civil laws

Pakistan Army Act, 1952

International aviation regulations

Private security regulations

How are officers and members of ASF appointed?

Through public elections

By signing an affirmation in the form set out in the First Schedule

By local government nomination

Through private employment agencies

What document vests an ASF officer or member with powers, functions, and privileges?

Government-issued ID card

Certificate under the seal of the Director General

Employment contract

Security badge

What happens if an ASF officer or member ceases to hold their position?

They retain their certification

They must surrender their certificate to an authorized officer

They are automatically transferred to another department

They keep their uniform

What must ASF officers and members wear as prescribed by regulations?

Casual attire

Uniforms

Business suits

Safety vests

Who supervises the administration of the Airports Security Force?

Local airport management

Federal Government

International aviation authorities

Airline executives

What must an officer or member take to ensure the security of airports and aerodromes?

Simple measures

Effective measures

Minimal measures

Temporary measures

Who is responsible for safeguarding civil aviation against acts of unlawful interference?

Airline security teams

Airports Security Force

Local police departments

Private security firms

What must be done to prevent unauthorized access to the air-side or other secure areas?

Installing more security cameras

Preventing unauthorized persons and vehicles

Hiring more security staff

Closing off public areas

Who determines the development level of an airport's facilities according to the ASF Act?

Local government

Federal Government

Airline companies

Private contractors

What area is controlled by the term "air side"?

Public areas of an airport

Movement area of an aerodrome and adjacent terrain

Retail and dining sections of an airport

Parking lots

Who is referred to as the "Director General" in the ASF Act?

Commander in charge of the Force

Airport Manager

Chief Security Officer

Civil Aviation Director

What must all aircraft registered in Pakistan conform to?

International aviation standards

Prescribed civil aviation security requirements

Local airport rules

Airline-specific guidelines

What happens to ASF officers and members who violate their duty?

They receive a warning

They are liable to be proceeded against departmentally

They are transferred to another department

They receive no penalty

Who can authorize the use of arms and ammunition by ASF officers?

Local police chief

Director General or an officer authorized by him

Airline security director

Airport manager

How are the pay, pension, allowances, and other remuneration of ASF officers determined?

By the officers themselves

As prescribed by rules

By airline companies

Through private negotiations

What is the jurisdiction of the ASF according to the Act?

Limited to the boundaries of the aerodrome

All civil aviation stations, centres, or offices in Pakistan

Only international airports

Restricted to domestic flights

Who must officers and members follow in the event of military assistance during anti-hijacking operations?

Airline staff

Military authority

Local police

Airport manager

What are ASF officers and members guided by in the discharge of their functions?

Personal judgment

This Act, rules, and regulations

Airline policies

Public opinion

How often can ASF officers use force?

Only when absolutely necessary

At their discretion

Whenever they choose

As directed by passengers

Who appoints the Director General of the Airports Security Force?

Local government

Federal Government

Airline companies

Civil Aviation Authority

What is the main duty of ASF officers and members?

To manage airport finances

To ensure security and safeguard civil aviation against unlawful interference

To operate air traffic control

To provide customer service to passengers

What must ASF officers and members ensure the proper conduct of at airports and aerodromes?

Airline staff

Passengers

Retail vendors

Maintenance crew

What is a key function of the ASF within the limits of airports and aerodromes?

Managing flight schedules

Ensuring security of aircraft passengers, baggage, cargo, and mail

Handling customer complaints

Providing catering services

What must ASF officers and members prevent unauthorized persons and vehicles from accessing?

Airport lounges

Air-side areas

Parking lots

Check-in counters

What law are ASF officers and members subject to, according to the ASF Act?

Local municipal laws

Pakistan Army Act, 1952

International aviation law

Corporate security policies

What document must an ASF officer or member receive upon appointment?

Job description

Certificate under the seal of the Director General

Security clearance

Personal identification number

What must ASF officers and members safeguard against?

Routine operational delays

Acts of unlawful interference

Financial discrepancies

Public dissatisfaction

What area does the term “air service” encompass?

Services for military aviation

Any service provided by means of an aircraft

Ground transportation services

Maritime navigation services

When can an ASF officer search a person or vehicle?

Only with a court order

If suspected of posing a security threat

During routine security checks

Upon passenger request

What does the term “aerodrome” exclude?

Public transportation areas

Airports used exclusively by the Pakistan Air Force

General aviation areas

Cargo terminals

Who is responsible for the certification of ASF officers?

Local government authorities

Director General of ASF

Airline security director

International aviation authorities

What must ASF officers and members wear while on duty?

Business casual attire

Uniforms prescribed by regulations

Airline-branded clothing

Personal attire

Who can direct ASF officers and members to take necessary actions for ensuring security?

Airline staff

Federal Government

Local police

Airport managers

What must be prevented at aerodromes and airports according to ASF duties?

Delays in flight schedules

Unauthorized access to secure areas

Increase in passenger traffic

Reduction in airport revenue

What is the main role of ASF under the ASF Act?

To provide customer service

To ensure security and safeguard civil aviation

To manage airport retail

To operate air traffic control

How is the Director General of ASF appointed?

By local elections

By the Federal Government

By airline companies

By airport management

What must ASF officers and members do if they suspect someone of endangering an aerodrome?

Detain the person without a warrant

Request assistance from local police

Report to airport management

Issue a warning

What does the term "air-side" refer to in the ASF Act?

Public areas of an airport

Movement area of an aerodrome and adjacent terrain

Retail sections of an airport

Parking facilities

Who is the "Director General" according to the ASF Act?

Airport manager

Commander in charge of the Force

Airline security director

Civil Aviation Director

What is the scope of ASF's responsibilities under the ASF Act?

Limited to domestic flights

Ensuring security for all civil aviation stations, centres, or offices in Pakistan

Overseeing international flights only

Managing airport retail operations

Mastering the intricacies of the ASF Act, 1975, is essential for anyone involved in airport security or aspiring to join the Airport Security Force. Our MCQs quiz not only serves as a comprehensive study tool but also offers an engaging way to reinforce your knowledge. Download the PDF now to embark on a journey of learning and preparation, ensuring you are well-versed in the legislative framework that underpins Pakistan's airport security operations.

Download the PDF of the Airport Security Force ASF Act 1975

ASF Act1975 MCQs

Complete ASF Act 1975 MCQs