Show Answer...

Correct Answer: A (Collective defense)

Explanation:

Article 5 of NATO, also known as the “Collective Defense” clause, is a crucial element of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization’s founding principles. It states that an armed attack against one or more NATO members is considered an attack against all members. In such a situation, each member is committed to taking necessary actions, including the use of armed force, to restore and maintain the security of the North Atlantic region. This provision emphasizes the commitment of NATO members to mutual defense and solidarity, promoting stability and security among member states.
