- C. When
- D. As soon as

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: A (No sooner)

Explanation:

Choose the appropriate phrase to complete the sentence: _____ does sir ask a question than clever students give an answer.

The correct answer is A, "No sooner."

The sentence is presenting a cause-and-effect relationship between two actions, indicating that the second action quickly follows the first action.

The phrase "No sooner" is used to introduce the second action that occurs immediately after the first action. It conveys the idea of 'almost immediately after' or 'hardly after'.

Option B, "Hardly had," is not the correct answer because it is not followed by the appropriate second action to complete the cause-and-effect relationship.

Option C, "When," is not the correct answer either because it does not convey the same sense of immediacy as "No sooner."

Option D, "As soon as," is not the correct answer. "As soon as" is used to introduce a future action that happens immediately after another action in the future, but it does not fit the context of the sentence.

In summary, the correct answer is A, "No sooner," as it properly introduces the cause-and-effect relationship between the two actions in the sentence.

_____ does sir ask a question than clever students give an answer.
