

Choose the appropriate word to complete the sentence: _____
you apologize, you will be punished.

_____ you apologize, you will be punished.

- A. until
- B. unless
- C. till
- D. None of these

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: B (unless)

Explanation:

The correct answer is B, "unless."

The sentence implies a conditional statement. The word "unless" is used to introduce a condition that must be fulfilled to avoid a consequence or action. In this case, the condition is apologizing, and the consequence is being punished.

Option A, "until," is not the correct answer because it does not convey the same conditional meaning as "unless."

Option C, "till," is also not the correct answer. "Till" is used to indicate a time duration and does not fit the context of a conditional statement.

Option D, "None of these," is not the correct answer. "Unless" is the correct word that properly fits the context of the sentence.

In summary, the correct answer is B, "unless," as it properly introduces the conditional statement in the sentence.

Choose the appropriate word to complete the sentence: _____
you apologize, you will be punished.
