Correct Answer: (comes)

Complete the sentence: Here _____ the Bus!

A. come

B. is coming

C. comes

D. coming

In English, sentence structure and word order play a significant role in conveying the intended meaning. The sentence “Here comes the Bus!” is a common expression used to indicate the arrival of a bus and showcases the importance of proper sentence construction.

The Correct Choice

The correct choice to complete the sentence is “comes.” The sentence should read, “Here comes the Bus!” This choice adheres to the grammatical rules and effectively conveys the idea of the bus arriving at the location.

Explanation

The sentence uses the subject-verb inversion structure, where the verb “comes” comes before the subject “the Bus.” This word order is commonly used in exclamatory sentences and emphasizes the action taking place. The sentence means that the bus is arriving at the designated spot.

Conclusion

Proper sentence construction is essential for effective communication in any language. In the sentence “Here comes the Bus!” the word “comes” is the correct choice to convey the message that the bus is arriving. This choice aligns with grammatical rules and ensures clear and accurate communication.
