Sociology MCQs by CSSMCQs

According to sociologists, a society is a collection of people with a common area, interactions, and culture. Social associations consist of two or more people who communicate and recognise with one another. Society is important because it presents us with a system and a program to work together for the betterment of the world. With the combined efforts of society, we are able to improve our living and social conditions. Sociology is of great importance in the solution of social problems. The present world is suffering from many problems that can be solved through scientific study of society. It is the task of sociology to study social problems through the methods of scientific research and to find out solutions to them.
