In spite of the confusion composed everywhere that the Federal Public Service Commission (FPSC) and Punjab Public Service Commission (PPSC) change their test pattern of MCQs each time and now merely counting on past paper will be nothing but a wastage of time. However, you can get a fairly idea of the MCQs which were given in past papers. If you devote yourself 4 to 5 months to one paper MCQs you can qualify for any One Paper MCQs test in Pakistan. What you need to do is to chalk out a study plan and then stick to it. Why most of the students don't qualify have the reasons behind, whether they have been trapped by academies or various book publishers.

Currently, almost every testing agencies issue a proper syllabus for the particular test. You need to cover that syllabus prior to the commencement of the test. Similarly, if there are acts in the given test, you should consult youtube for that. Once you listen to a lecture and come to know about the basics of the acts. Then, you won't face any difficulty while covering the acts on your own.

Why you must consult Past papers?

Past papers consistently have their greatest say in the One Paper MCQs test. On the off chance that one reads the previous papers of the most recent 20 years, one can find out about the inquiries that could be posed in tests. Unfortunately, there isn't so much as a solitary book or notes accessible in the market that could offer the genuine past papers MCQs. You may have encountered similar every one of the distributors compose Modal Past Paper. This is the reason in the light of the fact that FPSC and PPSC don't permit understudies to take past papers with them. With the exception of the CSSMCQs.com site, I didn't track down the genuine past papers of CSS MCQs at any other place. In spite of the fact that we have arranged all the previous papers MCQs of CSS Examination which is easily accessible at our site and application as well but yet people are not going to take advantage of that. ## General Knowledge For ONE PAPER Test

Most probably, you have been told in academies or somewhere else that preparing the Who is Who and What is What book can assist you to prepare for GK. No, it is not true. The book only gives you an idea of GK but not gives you questions that could become part of the GK sections. For GK sections I gave all of my attention to the past papers questions that are freely available on social media.

General knowledge is the most difficult part of the FPSC, PPSC, SPSC, KPPSC, BPSC AND NTS One Paper MCQ test. The reason is, every day there is new general knowledge is creating somewhere in the world. But one thing to remember here is that FPSC, PPSC, SPSC, KPPSC, BPSC AND NTS selects the most valuable and the most important General knowledge topics from all of that.

Most of the time those questions have a mysterious connection with Pakistan. So to prepare well for the General Knowledge topics you have to give time to a daily newspaper and look for that general knowledge that has a connection with Pakistan.

More often the questions of General Knowledge came from the national affairs of countries like Afghanistan, India, China, and other famous countries. FPSC, PPSC, SPSC, KPPSC, BPSC AND NTS want the candidates to be updated about Pakistan relations with such countries. They ask about the Currencies of the Capitals and more often about international organizations.

You can find all of this information in a single newspaper every day. You don't need to pay much time just go through the daily newspaper and your general knowledge questions will be prepared well.

Pakistan Affairs For ONE PAPER Test

Pakistan's examination is the most important point in the FPSC One Paper MCQ test. The most inquiry in this theme came from the Independence development. The Ali Garh movement, the role of our famous leader in the independence movement, the two-nation theory, partition of Bengal, establishment of Muslim League and Hindu Muslim Controversy are the most famous points in the Pakistan Study.

Aside from that, the decisions, Allama Iqbal and Quaid-e-Azam, the Lahore goal, the early issues of Pakistan, issues looked by the main government, Marshal Law circumstance, the India and Pakistan Wars, the 5 years improvement plans, Constitutional history of Pakistan, Parliament, the races as of late these are the top subjects that might come as an inquiry in your next PPSC test.

Just those competitors can plan well for these points that review their halfway and graduate Pakistan Study Books and furthermore take help from the aiding books accessible on the lookout. As these are the most well-known focuses throughout the entire existence of Pakistan so PPSC certainly gets some information about these.

In that FPSC can ask about the national affairs of the country, ambassadors visiting Pakistan from other countries, international meetings around the world, the current sporting events, the current political issues of Pakistan, and the national and international contracts for different economic interests.

These are such things that FPSC asks about in the current affairs topic. You should prepare well for this and you can use the newspaper and the talk shows on the television to stay updated about daily current affairs.

Islamic Studies For ONE PAPER Test

Each FPSC, PPSC, KPPSC, SPSC, NTS, etc. paper comprises of 5 to 8 MCQs from the Islamiyat section. If you prepare the last 10 to 20 years questions from past papers, it would be sufficient to gain full marks.

I prepared Islamiyat MCQs from Matric and F.Sc. books and then from CSS past papers. The pattern I follow was the following:

For Islamic study portions, I will suggest you buy a book based on Islamic MCQs. The reason for buying a book is, the Islamic Study is a really wide subject and a person is unable to cover all the topics in Islamic Study in a short time. So the better idea is to buy a key book of Islamic Study MCQs and go through it.

Please note that PPSC only gives 5 to 10 MCQs in the Islamic Study portion. So it is a good idea to have a key book and go through it for better preparation.

Geography For ONE PAPER Test

You should be aware that FPSC does not add too many geography questions to the test. Geography topics come only from the Pakistani perspective. The Mountains, plains, lakes, weather, the climate of Pakistan, rocks, etc. PPSC takes around 10 MCQs for this portion only. The main focus is always on Pakistan's study and General Knowledge.

Basic Mathematics For ONE PAPER Test

This is the portion where only basic Mathematics questions were asked.

Questions like ratio, Sum, etc. The Mathematics portion questions are like Matric level where the basic concept of mathematics is covered, usually given in the test. So you should revise your Basic concepts of Mathematics to clear this portion of the test. Besides, in order to cover the Basic Mathematics for one paper mcqs, you can also study the 7th, 8th and level textbooks of Punjab, KPK or Sindh board. These will make the foundation your of the basics.

English For ONE PAPER Test

Usually, The number of questions from English is 20. This means if you have prepared Math and English dedicatedly you can score 40 out of 100 very easily. Each of FPSC, PPSC, SPSC, KPPSC, NTS, and all other One Paper MCQs examinations in Pakistan, contains 20 MCQs from English section. The English section includes the following: FPSC and other exams ask mostly only synonyms and antonyms in the English portion. Sometimes the prepositions are also asked by PPSC in the test. For preparing for English better you should understand the meaning of the words of the English language that you read in daily life. It mostly happens that we read out an English passage randomly but we never try to understand the real meanings.

The need of the hour is that you should understand those words and then try to search for their synonyms and antonyms in the dictionary or on the internet. This is how you can clear the English portion. PPSC asks about 10 to 15 questions about the English Language.

Urdu For ONE PAPER Test

In this Urdu language portion, FPSC asks about the famous book their authors, the famous quotes in the Urdu language, and their meaning as well. The writers of famous novels and some times their date of birth are asked in the Urdu language portion.

We often neglect the Urdu portion as we don't know our culture completely that's why many candidates find it hard to clear the Urdu language portion. So, now, it is a good idea to read about the famous authors of the Urdu Language and their work so that you may understand it well.

Everyday Science For ONE PAPER Test

In everyday science, FPSC asks questions about the human body, human physiology, human biology, questions about different gasses, and their usage in daily life. Often questions are related to blood, liver, human skeleton, and about the Nobel prize winners in the field of science. All of this can be very well prepared if you read your daily newspaper.

Basic Computer Studies For ONE PAPER Test

The computer studies are the most simple portion of this test. Question-related to MS Word, MS Excel, MS PowerPoint, and some times about MS Access are asked. FPSC also asks questions about the internet the latest technology but these questions are very few than MS Office-related questions. I have often seen that the complete compute study portion is related to MS Word and MS Excel questions. The reason is that FPSC wants every candidate to be familiarized with using this software so that they may perform well during their job.
