

Professor Anwar told his students that air is a mixture because: suddenly a student raised his hand and said

Professor Anwar told his students that air is a mixture because: suddenly a student raised his hand and said

- A. it is colourless
- B. oxygen can be removed from it
- C. its composition is different at different altitudes
- D. it has different properties from its constituents

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: C. its composition is different at different altitudes