

The Classical School demanded recognition of rationality and the ability to exercise informed choice in human social life.

The Classical School demanded recognition of rationality and the ability to exercise informed choice in human social life.

- A. True
- B. False