

The effective nuclear charge for an atom is less than the actual nuclear charge due to

The effective nuclear charge for an atom is less than the actual nuclear charge due to

- A. Shielding
- B. Penetration
- C. Paramagnetism
- D. Electron-pair repulsion

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: A. Shielding