

The political system needs to be _____ through further devolution.

The political system needs to be _____ through further devolution.

- A. Broaden
- B. Shorten
- C. Strengthened
- D. Simplified

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: C. Strengthened

The phrase “further devolution” means to transfer power or authority from a central government to a lower level of government or organization. So, in the given sentence, it is saying that the political system needs to be “something” through further devolution.

Option A, “broaden,” does not make sense in this context because devolution is about transferring power from the central government to a lower level, not expanding the power of the central government.

Option B, “shorten,” also doesn’t make sense because devolution is not about reducing the length of the political system.

Therefore, the correct answer is C, “strengthen.” By transferring more power to lower levels of government, the political system can be strengthened and made more responsive to the needs of local communities.
