

The refusal to obey a government law or laws as a means of passive resistance because of one's moral conviction or belief

The refusal to obey a government law or laws as a means of passive resistance because of one's moral conviction or belief is?

- A. Anti-Federalism
  - B. Civil Disobedience
  - C. Provincialism
  - D. None of these
-