Complete the Sentence:

“We have been able to obtain no information ____ his whereabouts.”

- A. That of
- B. According to
- C. In Which
- D. As to

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: D (As to)

Explanation:

The correct option to complete the sentence is D. “As to.” The phrase “as to” is used to indicate a lack of information or uncertainty about a particular aspect or topic. In this context, it suggests that there is no available information or knowledge regarding the person’s whereabouts.

Sentences for options A, B, and C:

A. “That of”

- We have been able to obtain no information about his whereabouts and the whereabouts of others.
- The detective was frustrated as he had hoped to gather some clues, but we have been able to obtain no information that of his whereabouts.

B. “According to”

- We have been able to obtain no information according to his family members about his whereabouts.
- The news report stated that the police have been able to obtain no information according to witnesses regarding his whereabouts.

We have been able to obtain no information ____ his whereabouts.

C. "In Which"

- We have been able to obtain no information in which the investigator could base their search for his whereabouts.
- The missing person's case remained unresolved as we have been able to obtain no information in which any leads could be pursued.

In the given options, option D "As to" is the most suitable choice to complete the sentence and convey the intended meaning.
