

What country's parliament is known as the Milli Mejlis?

What country's parliament is known as the Milli Mejlis?

- A. Azerbaijan
- B. Turkey
- C. Kazakhstan
- D. Uzbekistan

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: A (Azerbaijan)

Explanation:

The Milli Mejlis is the unicameral parliament of Azerbaijan, located in its capital city of Baku. The parliament is composed of 125 members who are elected for a term of five years.

The Milli Mejlis is responsible for passing laws, approving the national budget, and overseeing the work of the government. The parliament also has the power to impeach the President of Azerbaijan and other high-ranking officials.

Since gaining independence from the Soviet Union in 1991, Azerbaijan has held several parliamentary elections, with the most recent one taking place in 2020. The country has made significant strides in building a democratic society and strengthening its institutions of governance.

The Milli Mejlis is an important institution in Azerbaijan's political system, and its work is closely watched by both the Azerbaijani people and the international community. The parliament plays a crucial role in shaping the country's future and ensuring that the voices of all citizens are heard.