Correct Answer: Sparingly

The word profusely means?

The word “profusely” is an adverb that means to do something in an excessive or abundant manner. It is often used to describe actions or occurrences that involve a significant or overwhelming amount of something. For example, if someone is sweating profusely, it means they are sweating excessively, producing a lot of sweat. If someone thanks you profusely, they are expressing their gratitude excessively, with great enthusiasm or in a very heartfelt manner. So, “profusely” essentially means “to a great degree” or “in large quantities.”
