

What is the capital of Belarus?

What is the capital of Belarus?

- A. Kiev
- B. Minsk
- C. Moscow
- D. Vilnius

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: B (Minsk)

Explanation:

Minsk is the capital and largest city of Belarus, a landlocked country in Eastern Europe. It is located in the central part of the country and is the political, economic, and cultural center of Belarus. Minsk is known for its historic architecture, cultural landmarks, and green spaces, including the Minsk Botanical Garden and the Chelyuskinites Park. The city also hosts a number of international events and festivals, including the Minsk International Film Festival and the Minsk Half Marathon.