

What is the capital of Kosovo?

What is the capital of Kosovo?

- A. Skopje
- B. Belgrade
- C. Pristina
- D. Tirana

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: C (Pristina)

Explanation:

Pristina is the capital and largest city of Kosovo, a partially recognized state in southeastern Europe. It is situated in the central part of Kosovo, near the Goljak Mountains, and is the political, economic, and cultural center of the country. Pristina is known for its mix of modern and traditional architecture, historic landmarks such as the Imperial Mosque and the National Museum of Kosovo, and bustling markets and shopping districts. It is also home to the University of Pristina, the largest and oldest university in Kosovo.
