What is the meaning of the word 'civilization'?

- A. The process of becoming uncivilized
- B. A state of being rude and uncultured
- C. A society that is well-organized and developed
- D. A state of chaos and anarchy

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: C (A society that is well-organized and developed)

Explanation:

Civilization is a term used to describe a society that is well-organized and developed. This includes characteristics such as social, political, and economic structures, as well as advancements in science, technology, and culture. The term is often used to describe societies that have developed beyond the basic level of subsistence and have created complex systems of governance and social organization.

Option A is incorrect, as civilization is the opposite of becoming uncivilized.

Option B is also incorrect, as being rude and uncultured is the opposite of what civilization represents. Option D is also incorrect, as civilization is a state of order and stability, rather than chaos and anarchy.

Real-world examples of civilizations:

- Ancient civilizations such as the Egyptian, Greek, and Roman civilizations
- Modern civilizations such as the United States, Japan, and Germany
- Emerging civilizations such as India, China, and Brazil

Conclusion:

Civilization refers to a well-organized and developed society, characterized by complex social, political, and economic structures, as well as advancements in science, technology, and culture. It is the opposite of becoming uncivilized and represents a state of order and stability, rather than chaos and anarchy. Examples of civilizations include both ancient and modern societies, as well as emerging economies.

What is the meaning of the word 'civilization'?
