What is the synonym of “ACUMEN”?

- A. Wisdom
- B. Ignorance
- C. Mediocrity
- D. Incompetence

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: A (Wisdom)

Explanation:

The synonym of “ACUMEN” is “Wisdom.”

“Acumen” refers to the ability to make quick and accurate judgments or decisions, particularly in practical matters. It is often associated with sharpness, astuteness, and keen insight.

“Wisdom” carries a similar meaning, representing deep understanding, knowledge, and sound judgment acquired through experience, reflection, or innate intelligence. It encompasses the ability to apply knowledge effectively and make wise choices.

On the other hand, “Ignorance,” “Mediocrity,” and “Incompetence” are antonyms rather than synonyms of “Acumen.” They represent the absence of or lack of proficiency in making insightful judgments or decisions.

Therefore, when seeking a synonym for “Acumen,” the appropriate choice is “Wisdom” as it closely aligns with the concept of sharpness, astuteness, and keen insight.
