

The synonym of “Wistful” is

_____.

- A. Little
- B. Aloud
- C. Joyfully
- D. Sad

Show Answer...

Correct Answer: D (Sad)

Explanation:

The correct answer is D, “Sad.”

“Wistful” is an adjective that means having a feeling of vague or regretful longing, often accompanied by a touch of melancholy. It is associated with a thoughtful yearning or desire for something that is unattainable or in the past.

Option A, “Little,” is not the correct answer. “Little” means small in size, quantity, or extent, and it does not have the same meaning as “wistful.”

Option B, “Aloud,” is also not the correct answer. “Aloud” is an adverb that means to speak or utter something audibly or loudly, which is unrelated to the meaning of “wistful.”

Option C, “Joyfully,” is not the correct answer. “Joyfully” means to do something with happiness or great pleasure, which is the opposite of the melancholic and yearning feeling conveyed by “wistful.”

In summary, the synonym of “Wistful” is “Sad,” as both words share a sense of longing and melancholy.
