Correct Answer: June 11

When is the International Day of Play observed annually?

A. March 11

B. April 11

C. June 11

D. December 11

The UN General Assembly declared June 11 as the International Day of Play. 73% of children believe adults do not take the importance of play seriously. Over 20% of children in Asia feel they are not allowed to play, compared to less than 10% in Europe and America. 38% of children in disaster-affected areas lack safe play spaces. One in three children do not have time to play; one in five lack safe spaces to play. Pakistan's National Curriculum Framework and National Education Policy do not emphasize the importance of play. Many public schools in Pakistan lack adequate playground facilities. Cultural barriers significantly limit girls' participation in play and sports.
