

Which of the following is not one of the factors, which tend to hinder the fairness of intelligence tests for lower class children?

Which of the following is not one of the factors, which tend to hinder the fairness of intelligence tests for lower class children?

- A. Inappropriate norms
- B. Items requiring certain experience
- C. Test assume test-taking skills
- D. Test gives bias the result