Who is the first female Supreme Court judge of Pakistan?

Justice Ayesha Malik is the first female Supreme Court judge

Justice Ayesha Malik has been elevated to the Supreme Court. She is the first woman to have been chosen for the highest judicial forum in the country, and she fully merits the elevation regardless of her gender. She was chosen ahead of others more senior to her, and this is the second time the judicial commission met to decide her elevation after the first attempt had ended in a stalemate due to an unprecedented and united opposition to the repeat violation of the oft violated seniority principle for judicial appointments.
