

Who said “To be is to be perceived”?

Who said “To be is to be perceived”?

- A. Locke
  - B. Hobbes
  - C. Berkeley
  - D. None of these
-